- In-network providers agree to limit what they will bill you. Because of that, when you use a preferred provider, your share of covered charges consists only of your deductible and coinsurance or copayment. Here is an example about coinsurance: You see an in-network physician who charges $150, but our allowance is $100. If you have met your deductible, you are only responsible for your coinsurance. That is, with High Option, you pay 20% of our $100 allowance ($20). Because of the agreement, your in-network physician will not bill you for the $50 difference between our allowance and the bill.
- Out-of-network providers, on the other hand, have no agreement to limit what they will bill you. When you use an out-of-network provider, you will pay your deductible and coinsurance - plus any difference between our allowance and charges on the bill. Here is an example: You see an out-of-network physician who charges $150 and our allowance is again $100. Because you've met your deductible, you are responsible for your coinsurance, so with High Option you pay 50% of our $100 allowance ($50). Plus, because there is no agreement between the out-of-network physician and us, the physician can bill you for the $50 difference between our allowance and the bill.

The following illustrates the examples of how much you have to pay out-of-pocket, under the High Option, for services from an in-network physician vs. an out-of-network physician. The table uses our example of a service for which the physician charges $150 and our allowance is $100. The example shows the amount you pay if you have met your calendar year deductible.

EXAMPLE:

In-network physician

Physician's charge: $150
Our allowance: We set it at: $100
We pay: 80% of our allowance: $80
You owe: 20% of our allowance: $20
+Difference up to charge?: No: $0
TOTAL YOU PAY: $20

Out-of-network physician

Physician's charge: $150
Our allowance: We set it at: $100
We pay: 50% of our allowance: $50
You owe: 50% of our allowance: $50
+Difference up to charge?: Yes: $50
TOTAL YOU PAY: $100

Your catastrophic protection out-of-pocket maximum

After your (deductible, copayments and coinsurance) reaches the out-of-pocket maximum you do not have to pay any more for covered services, with the exception of certain cost sharing for the services below which do not count toward your catastrophic protection out-of-pocket maximum.

Your out-of-pocket maximum for services rendered during this calendar year is:

- In-network
  - For High Option, the out-of-pocket maximum is $7,500 for Self Only enrollment; $15,000 when enrollment is Self Plus One or Self and Family when you use in-network providers.
  - For Standard Option, the out-of-pocket maximum is $8,000 for Self Only enrollment; $16,000 when enrollment is Self Plus One or Self and Family if you use in-network providers.
  - Only out-of-pocket expenses from in-network providers count toward these limits.
  - An individual under Self Plus One or Self and Family enrollment will never have to satisfy more than what is required for the out-of-pocket maximum under a Self Only enrollment.
