High and Standard Option Overview

This Plan offers both a High and Standard Option. Both benefit packages are described in Section 5. Make sure that you review the benefits that are available under the option in which you are enrolled.

The High and Standard Option Section 5 is divided into subsections. Please read Important things you should keep in mind about these benefits at the beginning of each subsection. For more information about services, see Section 1, We have Preferred Providers Organization (PPO) Network. Also read the General Exclusions in Section 6; they apply to the benefits in the following subsections. To obtain claim forms, claims filing advice, or more information about High and Standard Option benefits, contact us at 800-821-6136 or on our website at geha.com/Get-Support.

Each option offers unique features:

- High Option
  - Extensive provider network.
  - No requirement to choose a single doctor as your primary physician.
  - No referral needed to see a specialist. However, you might need preauthorization for certain services.
  - Generic drugs: $10 copay for a 30-day supply at a retail pharmacy; $25 copay for 90-day supply, mail order.
  - Urgent Care copay of $45 when you use an in-network facility.
  - Within the provider network, 80% coverage for room and board and for other hospital charges after the $200 per day copayment, up to 5 days. Precertification is required.
  - Freedom to choose any doctor with extra savings when you see a preferred provider.
- Standard Option
  - Affordable premiums.
  - $35 copay for office visits to any primary care provider including family or general practitioners, pediatricians, OB/GYN and medical internists. $0 copay applies for the first non-preventive visit for children under 18, after which the $35 copay applies.
  - Urgent Care copay of $50 when you use an in-network facility. $0 copay applies for the first two visits for children under 18, after which the $50 copay applies.
  - No requirement to choose a single doctor as your primary physician.
  - No referral needed to see a specialist. However, you might need preauthorization for certain services.
  - Generic drugs: $10 copay for a 30-day supply at a retail pharmacy; $25 copay for 90-day supply, mail order.
  - Freedom to choose any doctor with extra savings when you see a preferred provider.

Medicare Advantage Opportunity

We also offer a tailored Medicare Advantage (PPO) plan to our FEHB members in partnership with UnitedHealthcare (UHC). The G.E.H.A High Medicare Advantage Plan and the G.E.H.A Standard Medicare Advantage Plan enhance your coverage by reducing or eliminating cost-sharing for services and adding benefits at no additional cost. Members may opt in or out of the Plan at any time. Members have access to UnitedHealthcare's large nationwide network and may seek care in or out of network. In addition, members will have access to benefit enhancements as noted in Section 9. For more information, please contact 844-491-9898, TTY: 711 or go to geha.com/Retiree-Coverage.
