1 See IRS Publications 502 and 969 for more information regarding qualified medical expenses, health savings accounts, and health reimbursement arrangements.
2 Investment products are not FDIC insured, are not a deposit or other obligation of or guaranteed by HSA Bank and are subject to investment risks. The information provided is for informational purposes only. It should not be considered legal or financial advice. You should consult with a professional to determine what may be best for your individual needs.
3 In-network providers agree to limit what they will charge you. You pay a fixed dollar amount or percentage of the provider's negotiated amount.
4 The net deductible is the remaining amount after you subtract the annual G.E.H.A contribution from the annual deductible. This is your out-of-pocket cost before plan benefits begin.
5 The out-of-pocket maximum is the maximum amount of coinsurance, copays and deductibles you pay for all family members before G.E.H.A begins paying for 100% of covered services. This is a combined maximum for both medical care and prescriptions.
6 Calendar year deductible applies.
7 HDHP members who have met their deductible will be charged by MDLIVE, but G.E.H.A will reimburse the member 100% of the Plan Allowance.
8 Refer to geha.com/Prescriptions for formulary and specialty coverage for specific medications.
9 If you choose a brand-name medication when a generic is available, you will be charged the generic copay plus the difference in cost between the brand-name and the generic.
