Section 4. Your Costs for Covered Services

This is what you will pay out-of-pocket for your covered care:

Cost-sharing

Cost-sharing is the general term used to refer to your out-of-pocket costs (e.g., deductible and coinsurance) for the covered care you receive.

Copayments

A copayment is a fixed amount of money you pay to the provider or facility when you receive certain services. Note: If the billed amount (or the Plan allowance that providers we contract with have agreed to accept as payment in full) is less than your copayment, you pay the lower amount.

Deductible

A deductible is a fixed amount of covered expenses you must incur for certain covered services and supplies before we start paying benefits for them. Coinsurance amounts do not count toward any deductible. When a covered service or supply is subject to a deductible, only the Plan allowance for the service or supply counts toward the deductible.

- In-network: The calendar year deductible is $1,800 per person under High Deductible Health Plan. Under a Self Only enrollment, the deductible is considered satisfied, and benefits are payable for you when your covered expenses applied to the calendar year deductible for your enrollment reach $1,800. Under a Self Plus One or a Self and Family enrollment, once the calendar year deductible is considered satisfied, and benefits are payable for you and other eligible family members when the combined covered expenses accumulates to the calendar year deductible for any combination of family members reaches the Self Plus One or the Self and Family limit of $3,600. Only plan allowance paid for services or supplies from in-network providers counts toward this amount.
- Out-of-network: Under a Self Only enrollment, the deductible is considered satisfied, and benefits are payable for you when your covered expenses applied to the calendar year deductible for your enrollment reach $4,500. Under a Self Plus One or a Self and Family enrollment, once the calendar year deductible is considered satisfied, and benefits are payable for you and other eligible family members when the combined covered expenses accumulates to the calendar year deductible for any combination of family members reaches the Self Plus One or Self and Family limit of $9,000. Only plan allowance paid for services or supplies from out-of-network providers counts towards this amount.

If the billed amount (or the Plan allowance that providers we contract with have agreed to accept as payment in full) is less than the remaining portion of your deductible, you pay the lower amount.

Example: If the billed amount is $100, the in-network provider has an agreement with us to accept $80, and you have not paid any amount toward meeting your calendar year deductible, you must pay $80. We will apply $80 to your deductible. We will begin paying benefits once the remaining portion of your calendar year deductible of $1,800 for Self Only has been satisfied.

Note: If you change PSHB plans during Open Season the effective date of your new PSHB plan is January 1 of the next year, and a new deductible starts on January 1. If you change plans at another time during the year, you must begin a new deductible under your new plan.

If you change enrollment options from one qualified High Deductible Health Plan to another qualified High Deductible Health Plan during the year, we will credit the amount of covered expenses already applied toward the deductible of your old option to the deductible of your new option.
