	Note: If your effective date in the HDHP is after the 1st of the month, the earliest your HSA will be established is the 1st of the following month. If you are new to this Plan based on an Open Season change, your first premium pass through will be made available no earlier than February as new enrollees and terminations from Open Season are still being received in January. Your last HSA pass-through contribution for the current plan year will fund in January of the following plan year as long as you maintain eligibility through the end of the current plan year. For 2026, a monthly premium pass through that is not a whole number will have any remaining balance included in the final monthly contribution. In addition, you may establish pre-tax HSA deductions from your paycheck to fund your HSA up to IRS limits using the same method that you use to establish other deductions (i.e., Employee Express, MyPay, etc.).
• Self Only enrollment	For 2026, a monthly premium pass through of $83.33 will be made by the HDHP directly into your HSA.	For 2026, your HRA annual credit is $1,000 (prorated for mid-year enrollment). Members leaving G.E.H.A mid-year will be expected to return a portion of the annual contribution to G.E.H.A only if they have filed claims against the funds (prorated based on the number of months in the Plan) and will forfeit their remaining HRA account balance at that time.
• Self Plus One enrollment	For 2026, a monthly premium pass through of $166.66 will be made by the HDHP directly into your HSA.	For 2026, your HRA annual credit is $2,000 (prorated for mid-year enrollment). Members leaving G.E.H.A mid-year will be expected to return a portion of the annual contribution to G.E.H.A only if they have filed claims against the funds (prorated based on the number of months in the Plan) and will forfeit their remaining HRA account balance at that time.
• Self and Family enrollment	For 2026, a monthly premium pass through of $166.66 will be made by the HDHP directly into your HSA.	For 2026, your HRA annual credit is $2,000 (prorated for mid-year enrollment). Members leaving G.E.H.A mid-year will be expected to return a portion of the annual contribution to G.E.H.A only if they have filed claims against the funds (prorated based on the number of months in the Plan) and will forfeit their remaining HRA account balance at that time.
Contributions/ credits	The maximum that can be contributed to your HSA is an annual combination of HDHP premium pass through and your contribution funds, which when combined, do not exceed the maximum contribution amount set by the IRS of $4,400 for an individual and $8,750 for Self Plus One or Self and Family.	The full HRA credit will be available, subject to proration, on the effective date of enrollment. The HRA does not earn interest.
