| Benefits Description: | You pay |
|---|---|
| Covered medications and supplies (cont.) | HDHP with EGWP |
| Contraceptive drugs and devices as listed in the Health Resources and Services Administration site hrsa.gov/womens-guidelines.Contraceptive coverage is available at no cost to PSHB members. The contraceptive benefit includes at least one option in each of the HRSA-supported categories of contraception (as well as the screening, education, counseling, and follow-up care). Any contraceptive that is not already available without cost sharing on the formulary can be accessed through the contraceptive exceptions process described below.Over the counter and prescription drugs approved by the FDA to prevent unintended pregnancy.Any contraceptive that is not already available without cost sharing on the formulary can be accessed through the contraceptive exceptions process described on G.E.H.A's website at geha.com/Family-Planning-Options or by calling SilverScript at 833-250-3241. Exception requests for contraception coverage will be processed within 24 hours of receiving complete information. If you have difficulty accessing contraceptive coverage or other reproductive healthcare, you can contact contraception@opm.gov.Reimbursement for covered over-the-counter contraceptives can be submitted by sending in your original prescription receipt obtained by your pharmacy to:SilverScript Insurance CompanyPrescription Drug PlansMedicare Part D Paper ClaimPO Box 52066Phoenix, AZ 85072-2066Note:• For additional Family Planning benefits see Section 5(a). | Nothing (no deductible) |
| Insulin, one-month supply | $35 copay |
| Preventive medications | HDHP with EGWP |
| Preventive medications with USPSTF A and B recommendations are covered with no cost-share at a participating pharmacy. These may include some over the counter vitamins, nicotine replacement medications, and low dose aspirin for certain patients. For current recommendations go to: uspreventiveservicestaskforce.org/BrowseRec/index/browse-recommendations.Age restrictions apply.Notes:• To receive preventive care benefits, a prescription from your doctor must be presented to the pharmacy for these preventive services to be covered by the plan, even if they are listed as over the counter. Changes can occur throughout the year.• Over the counter and appropriate prescription drugs approved by the FDA to treat tobacco dependence are covered under the Tobacco Cessation Educational Classes and Programs in Section 5(a) | Preferred pharmacy: Nothing (no deductible)Member is responsible for charges above allowable when using a non-preferred pharmacy. |

Preventive medications - continued on next page